

References:

- Leibold A, Lassen CL, Lindenberg N, Graf BM and Wiese CH. (2018). Is Every Life Worth Saving: Does Religion and Religious Beliefs Influence Paramedic's End-of-Life Decision-making? A Prospective Questionnaire-based Investigation. Indian J Palliat Care. 24 (1), pg9-15.
- Murphy-Jones G and Timmons S. (2016). Paramedics' experiences of end-of-life care decision making with regard to nursing home residents: an exploration of influential issues and factors. Emerg Med J. 33 (10), pg722-726.
- Patterson R, Standing H, Lee M, Dalkin S, Lhussier M, Exley C and Brittain K. (2019). Paramedic information needs in end-of-life care: a qualitative interview study exploring access to a shared electronic record as a potential solution. BMC. 18 (1), pg1-8.
- Waldrop DP, Clemency B, Lindstrom HA and Clemency Cordes C . (2015). "We Are Strangers Walking Into Their Life-Changing Event": How Prehospital Providers Manage Emergency Calls at the End of Life. J Pain Symptom Manage. 50 (3), pg328-334.
- Waldrop DP, Mcginley JM, Dailey MW and Clemency B. (2018). Decision-Making in the Moments Before Death: Challenges in Prehospital Care. Prehospital Emergency Care . 23 (3), pg356-363.